

Jarah Jane

Montreal, March 6, 2007 – Writer-composer and performer Jarah Jane is making her official debut in the music world with her brand new album entitled “Personal”, sold exclusively on the Internet at www.jarahjane.com.

Relentless in the quest to fulfill her dream, Jarah determines every step of her path to success. After being condemned to silence and self-control for too long, she is now emerging before us. Today, this determined woman creates her own opportunity - the opportunity to sing her love of music, without any restraint, by producing herself.

Baring her soul, Jarah Jane offers us “Personal”, a perfect reflection of herself as it translates to a world of dreams and emotions. She will have invested over a decade in developing the confidence she needs to ensure the release of this album on her own, thus earning the status of independent artist. In fact, she achieved the release of this album on her own. The true beauty of her voice is showcased along the sound of her acoustic guitar. Her artless beauty is displayed through her disarmingly natural looks. Jarah has this certain je ne sais quoi, resonating from a refreshing blend of urban folk and rock influence that adorns and enhances both her lyrics and her voice.

Never silent again.

It is in the cold universe of silence that she drew her strength. Jarah chose to learn from this painful experience (tragic consequence of serious vocal cords complications) that confined her to absolute silence for several weeks.

A finalist at the renowned Detroit Lilith Fair Contest shortly before this mishap, Jarah had to put her very promising career on hold. Luckily, and to our greatest joy, she has now returned to the music scene. “Personal”, including 7 original titles, is offered exclusively on her Website at the price of $12.99, all taxes and shipping fees included. Let yourself be lulled by her sensitivity and the rhythm of her most recent album. Indulge yourself by discovering her in an interview or even better, on stage!
