

TONY AMBULANCE BAND

The incredible journey of the Tony Ambulance Band

Launch of the first self-titled album

Montreal, March 26, 2009 – Maestro – turn up the volume! The Tony Ambulance Band takes the Quebec music scene by storm with the release of its first self-titled album. The troubadours of today's bar scene, the TAB are a bunch of wild and crazy guys (and girls) putting down a surreal array of tunes where outrageous poetry rubs shoulders with tender wisdom. The official launch of the CD is scheduled for Monday, April 20 at the Lion d'Or Cabaret, but already the buzz is ferocious around this album that breaks new ground on our music scene.

The TAB is led by Anthony Rozankovic, well-known leader, composer and orchestrator of music both domestic and foreign. He has been involved in all sorts of arrangements and orchestration projects over the years (Diane Dufresne, Pagliaro, OSM, Jorane, Corneille) as well as the production of award-winning records (Florence K, Montréal Jazz Club, Bande Magnétique), not to mention creating the soundtrack for films and TV series (L'otage, La boîte noire, Mayday, Les enfants de Tchernobyl). This time the master opens the door to his creative treasure house along with the musicians of the TAB.

Unique in tone and color, the TAB will appeal to anyone with rhythm in their feet and folly in their hearts. Over the last five years the group has included Gabriel Lajoie (bass), Benjamin Vigneault (drums), Nancy Carroll (vocals), Charles Imbeau (trumpet), Stephen Johnston (electric guitar), Evans Baptiste (percussion) and Anthony Rozankovic (piano and vocals). Everyone in the band is ready for the big début and TAB's coming out. Add to the mix some of the sharpest pens in Quebec, including Stanley Péan, Valérie Lagrange and Carl Leblanc, and let's not forget the posthumous contributors to the effort, such as Lorenzo da Ponte, Mozart and Jean-Philippe Rameau.

The Tony Ambulance Band is ready to drive you to the emergency ward for a stiff shot of rhythm, dance, folly and poetry, full of surprises.

Here's a record that'll make you hear the world in a whole different way!
