Discover the creative genius of the

TONY AMBULANCE BAND

On stage at L'UNION FRANÇAISE,
On May 1st and 2nd, 2009!

Montreal, Thursday April 23, 2009 – Still excited from their last performance, TAB's cheerful troubadours will take on the stage at L'Union française on May 1st and 2nd, starting at 9:00 P.M. Back and forth from his promotional tour and various media visits, Anthony Rozankovic - the leader, composer and instigator of the group, claims to be pleasantly surprised with the public's reaction. Since the album's release on April 21st, cheers and testimonies come thick and fast for this group. "Good things come to those who wait", says Anthony Rozankovic with a smile.

Once a long time sponsor of other artists' projects and the genius behind many impressive achievements, including several award-winning records (Bossa Blue from Florence K, 2007 Félix Award – World Music, Qui sera le Père Noël? from La Bande Magnétique, 1995 Félix Award – Music Arranger of the year), Anthony Rozankovic is now working on his own career. Constantly developing his creative wizardry, this mastermind transposes his passion, wistfulness and sensitiveness on stage and floods the crowd with his originality and eccentricity.

The Funky and very colourful members of the Tony Ambulance Band invite you to attend their performance on May 1st and 2nd, 2009. This unique ensemble, composed of Gabriel Lajoie, Benjamin Vigneault, Nancy Carroll, Charles Imbeau, Stephen Johnston, Evens Baptiste and Anthony Rozankovic, will seduce and transport you instantly to a surreal universe - one they take pleasure in creating and in which they can enjoy every moment spent playing together. The group's music is inspired by the realities of our world – its differences and contradictions, chaos, the human race who is sometimes capable of crowning foolishness and lies.

This album gives its listeners the irresistible urge to see things...differently!
They can be discovered at L'Union Française on May 1st and 2nd, starting at 9:00 P.M.
